Basic Collaborative Law Training

FEBRUARY 23-24, 2012, AND SEPTEMBER 20-21, 2012
9 AM TO 5 PM (SEATTLE: HOTEL DECA)

Our highly acclaimed entry-level training for Collaborative Law will teach you what you need to know to get started in Collaborative Law. At this exciting training you will learn:

- Skills and procedures for handling a Collaborative case from beginning to end. We include a step-by-step reference manual, checklists and helpful forms on CD to get you started.
- The roles and function of Collaborative team members, including the lawyer, financial specialist, coach and child specialist.
- An introduction to facilitative and other skills to help bring a Collaborative case to successful conclusion.
- Stages of the Collaborative Law Process.
- Ethical issues facing the Collaborative professional.

This skills-focused training is taught by an Interdisciplinary Collaborative Team (lawyers, coach, and financial specialist), and includes demonstrations and hands-on practice. This course fulfills the Basic Collaborative Law training requirement of most local Collaborative Law organizations, and complies with training standards of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals.

13 CLE credits (including 1 ethics) approved. Approved for 6.5 CEUs (provider #1975-272) for Psychologists, Licensed Social Workers, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists, and Licensed Mental Health Counselors by the National Association of Social Workers through Collaborative Professionals of Washington.

Faculty: Rachel Felbeck, JD; Anne Lucas, MA, LMHC; John Twitchell, CDF; and J. Mark Weiss, JD

Advanced Facilitation Seminar – Beyond Interests (for Lawyers, Mediators, MHPs and Financials)

MARCH 7, 14, 21 AND 28, 2012 4-6 PM (SEATTLE: PARAMOUNT HOTEL)

Sometimes, it seems impossible to reach a resolution. This seminar series will provide advanced skills to those who have mastered interest-based facilitation. You will advance past the limitations of interests and needs to achieve extraordinary results in your facilitation of difficult cases – without resorting to rights-based methods. First, you will learn how to apply the advanced toolbox from the “Facilitating Negotiations and Working with Clients” workshop in challenging high-conflict cases. Then, you will learn a researched and highly effective method to motivate disempowered and disengaged clients. Finally, you will learn skills to help clients re-examine their relationship to conflict and entitlement so they can create a more empowered future.

2 CLE credits per session applied for.

Faculty: Rachel Felbeck, JD; Anne Lucas, MA, LMHC; and J. Mark Weiss, JD

Facilitating Negotiations and Working with Clients (for Lawyers, Mediators, MHPs and Financials)

MARCH 2, 2012 9 AM TO 5 PM (SEATTLE: PARAMOUNT HOTEL)

Sometimes, when working on cases, we feel like our work has been ineffective, despite using our best efforts, and it can be hard to figure out why. This workshop is designed to significantly enhance your facilitation and negotiation skills and techniques. This workshop breaks down the work that Collaborative professionals do with their clients into distinct phases, and teaches specific tools for each phase. By providing a structure for working with clients and for tool organization, you will be able to confidently select the right tools to help with common issues. By the end of this workshop, you will be able to deploy specific tools with precision and effectiveness. First taught in 2011, this workshop has received rave reviews and will propel your Collaborative Practice skills.

6.5 CLE credits approved.

Faculty: Anne Lucas, MA, LMHC, and J. Mark Weiss, JD

The Magic of Collaborative Coaching

MAY 17 4-8 PM AND MAY 18, 2012 9 AM TO 4:30 PM
(SEATTLE: PARAMOUNT HOTEL)

This program is designed to give Collaborative team members an in-depth understanding of the Collaborative coach. This is a golden opportunity for all Collaborative practitioners to learn more about the “Divorce Coach Skill Set” – a comprehensive toolbox developed out of years of experience that will strengthen your effectiveness and efficiency working with divorcing couples and families.

9.5 CLE credits approved. Approved for 10 CEUs (provider #1975-272) for Psychologists, Licensed Social Workers, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists and Licensed Mental Health Counselors by the National Association of Social Workers through Collaborative Professionals of Washington.

Faculty: Anne Lucas, MA, LMHC, and Karen Bonnell, MS

Creating and Leading an Effective Collaborative Team

OCTOBER 12, 2012 9 AM TO 5 PM (SEATTLE: PARAMOUNT HOTEL)

Effective teamwork begins with each individual. This advanced-skills workshop is designed for those who want to improve their leadership and team-building skills. You'll learn a step-by-step personal leadership model that will help you understand the behaviors associated with highly effective teamwork. Discover how teams can rebuild trust that has been broken and examine the components of accountable and conflict-avoidant behaviors and their relationship to personal leadership competencies. In this interactive training, you'll practice the key skills used in high performing teams: accountability, collaboration and giving feedback.

6 CLE credits approved.

Faculty: Rachel Felbeck, JD, and John Twitchell, CDF
